GALLERY AND NEIGHBORHOOD TOUR

Exploring Santiago's emerging art scene is an excellent way to dive into its cultural, historical and political heritage and explore the city.

Description

Examine Chile's culture and Santiago through the eyes of a growing pool of contemporary Chilean artists. The number of working galleries and museums in Santiago has grown radically over the last 10 years, and offer a visitor the perfect path to explore the different neighborhoods, architecture, stories, imagery and objects.

We will pick you up at your hotel at 10am, and then visit the following spaces: (IF not available an alternative will be offered)

Museo de la Solidaridad Salvador Allende: A hidden jewel in Santiago, is the perfect place to appreciate the international context that supported Salvador Allende's government by 1970's, MAVI: Museum of Visual Arts; An exposition space and foundation that opened in 2001. It has a collection of 650 works representing the Chilean artistic activity from the 60s on. The collection includes painting, sculpture, graphics, photography and installations, among others. Currently, it has more than 1.400 works by 300 national artists approximately.

Galería Patricia Ready: One of the newest art galleries in Santiago. Every month, it's big and modern infrastructure hosts 360 sqm for exhibitions of the most important contemporary Chilean artists, from the young emerging talent to artists with established careers, both in the country and abroad. Afterwards, there are a number of smaller galleries in the surrounding area of Nueva Costanera/Alonso de Cordoba with smaller collections that we can visit, depending on the time. We allow time for a one hour lunch (not included in the price), and can recommend excellent options depending on your preference and taste.
